FOURTH MOTION OF SKYLINE ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY SERVICES TO EXTEND TIME TO OBJECT TO CONFIRMATION

Skyline Advanced Technology Services (“Skyline”) moves this Court, under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3015(f) and 9006(b) to further extend the time within which it must object to the confirmation of the Debtor’s Chapter 13 plan. In support of its motion, Skyline states as follows:

1. On February 6, 2024, Skyline was awarded a judgment in the United States

District Court for the Northern District of California against the Debtor for $745,061.53 based on, among other things, the Debtor’s breaches of duties owed to Skyline. The Debtor and Skyline are pursuing appeals of different aspects of that judgment order.<sup>1</sup>

2. On May 23, 2024, the Debtor filed her Chapter 13 petition in this Court commencing the above-captioned bankruptcy case. On that date the Debtor also filed her Chapter 13 plan.

3. Originally, the hearing on confirmation of the plan was set for July 10, 2024. Accordingly, pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3015(f), Skyline’s objection to the plan would have been due on July 3, 2024. Skyline moved the Court for an extension of time to object to the plan, which was granted by the Court on July 10, 2024, and which extended the time to object to September 3, 2024. Thereafter, Skyline moved the Court to grant additional extensions of the time to object, given that the confirmation hearing on the Debtor's plan had been continued by agreement of the Chapter 13 Trustee and the Debtor. On September 25, 2024, the Court granted Skyline's most recent motion, and extended the date for Skyline's objection to confirmation of the Debtor's plan to December 18, 2024.

<sup>1</sup> The Debtor obtained an order of this Court on June 5, 2024, modifying the stay as to her appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Additionally, that order provided stay relief to Skyline with respect to its own appeal from a separate order in the underlying litigation.

4. Skyline previously obtained from this Court an order authorizing it to seek discovery from the Debtor and affiliated entities under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004. In accordance with that order, Skyline issued subpoenas to the Debtor and those affiliates. While a large volume of documents have been produced, the Debtor and Skyline are engaged in disputes over that production that have not yet been resolved and which might warrant the Court's intervention. Skyline will also seek to take the Debtor's deposition. This discovery is critical to Skyline's decision on objecting to the Debtor's plan.

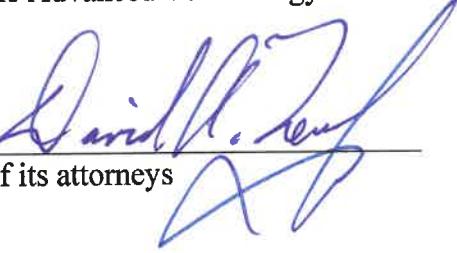

5. This is not the typical Chapter 13 case. Indeed, had it been filed only a few days later than it was, the Debtor would not have been entitled to Chapter 13 relief because her debts would have exceeded the Chapter 13 debt limit in 11 U.S.C. § 109(e) [unsecured debts of less than $465,275]. However, the Debtor's case was filed in the last few days before the sunset of the Chapter 13 debt limit of $2,750,000. Moreover, the issues involved in the matter are complex and discovery is – and has been – a lengthy and time-consuming process. Accordingly, a lengthy extension is necessary and warranted.

6. Skyline is simultaneously seeking an identical extension of the time by which it must pursue a challenge to the Debtor's discharge. That motion is being noticed for the same date as the instant motion.

7. Counsel for the Debtor has indicated that Shafer does not object to Skyline's request.

WHEREFORE, Skyline Advanced Technology Services prays this Court extend the time within which it must file an objection to the Debtor's Chapter 13 plan to March 18, 2025, and grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate in the circumstances.

Respectfully submitted,
Skyline Advanced Technology Services
